

Scott Tinkler

Born in Annapolis and raised on the Chesapeake Bay, Scott has always had the sea in his blood. Having learned how to build boats beside his father, after college at Salisbury State University, Scott came to what was then a small boatyard, Port Annapolis Marina in 1982. He began as a general yard worker and operated the marina's travel lifts and crane. Over the years his duties expanded and ran the complete gamut of marina activities. Scott is now vice president and general manager of Port Annapolis in his 33rd year at the marina. Under Scott's guidance, Port Annapolis became the first Certified Clean Marina in Maryland, received National Marina of the year honors in 2004, and has become one of the best facilities on the Bay.

Scott and his wife of 18 years have a 15-year-old son. In the rare moments, away from the marina Scott enjoys, family outings, home projects, time out on the water, and cheering for the local sports teams.
